

CERTIFIED TECHNICAL ARCHITECT PROGRAM

Sovereign Bank Case Study Capstone Part 1

CTA Capstone Part 1 Video Assessment – Rubric

Your performance on your Capstone video assessment will be assessed on the demonstration of the following objectives:

Topics	Performance Objectives	Categories
Architect Responsibilities	Given a scenario, the CTA explains business and technical considerations for how to achieve the digital transformation, as well as discussing any key risks, issues, and/or challenges and how to mitigate them.	Customer Outcomes Technical Architecture
CMDB/CSDM	Given a scenario, the CTA designs a solution for how to leverage the CSDM and create and manage the CMDB to achieve the customers' business outcomes. The CTA describes the CSDM and discusses leading practices for configuration control as well as leading practices to keep the CMDB current and healthy.	Technical Architecture Customer Outcomes Technical Governance
Technical Governance	Given a scenario, the CTA recommends and highlights the benefits of a governance structure to help implement controls in the four technical domains to ensure the project achieves the stated goals and follows leading practices for establishing governance.	Technical Governance

Testing Leading Practices	Given a scenario, the CTA recommends and highlights the benefits of a test plan with a risk-based approach, that incorporates testing leading practices.	Technical Governance
Go-live Preparation	Given a scenario, The CTA recommends leading practices for go-live, including communication, implementation, and hypercare. The CTA identifies risks and how to mitigate them as well as go-live leading practices.	Technical Governance
Security Architecture	Given a scenario, the CTA describes the platform security and encryption considerations and recommends and defends a solution that utilizes appropriate platform security mechanism to allow for data sovereignty and encryption	Technical Architecture
Data Strategies	Given a scenario, the CTA recommends a data strategy that will deliver business outcomes, account for legacy data, maintain control and security and includes leading practices for managing data.	Customer Outcomes Technical Architecture